

Contact: Darcy Maher, 732-729-9877; Email: dbmbildner@comcast.net

March 7, 2017 / FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Life of Golda Meir is Subject of Public Talk at Rutgers on March 27

NEW BRUNSWICK/PISCATAWAY, N.J. – Professor Pnina Lahav (Boston University School of Law) will speak about Golda Meir, Israel’s fourth prime minister and the only woman to hold that post, at a public talk based on her current book project, Golda Meir: Through the Gender Lens. The talk will address Meir’s leadership and political ideology as well as explore how Meir reconciled career and family and her position on women’s equality and the women’s movement. This year’s Ruth and Alvin Rockoff Annual Program, sponsored by the Allen and Joan Bildner Center for the Study of Jewish Life, will be held Monday, March 27, at 7:30 p.m., at the Douglass Student Center located at 100 George Street, New Brunswick.

The lecture is free and open to the public. Free parking is available behind the Douglass Student Center. (For GPS search, use “57 Lipman Drive.”) Advance registration is requested by emailing csjlrsvp@rci.rutgers.edu or calling 848-932-2033. For more information, visit the website BildnerCenter.Rutgers.edu.

Lahav, a professor of law and a core faculty member of the Elie Wiesel Center for Jewish Studies at Boston University, is the author of the critically acclaimed book Judgment in Jerusalem: Chief Justice Simon Agranat and the Zionist Century.

The Allen and Joan Bildner Center for the Study of Jewish Life, an academic center at Rutgers University, connects the university with the community through public lectures, symposia, Jewish communal initiatives, cultural events, and teacher training.